2. Introduction: Establishing Credibility

Purpose: Clearly state your relationship with the candidate
Mention your position and how long you've known the individual
Summarize the purpose of the letter (e.g., applying for a graduate program, scholarship, job position)

4. Comparative Assessment

Providing context by comparing the candidate to peers adds weight to the recommendation.
Example: "Among the students I have mentored over the past decade, Jane stands out as one of the most innovative and dedicated."

5. The Closing: Strong Endorsement

Summarize your overall impression and explicitly recommend the candidate.
Key elements: Restate confidence in the candidate's suitability
Offer to provide further information
End on an enthusiastic note
